Mr. Cahan of the Theatreum received a wire last evening informing him of the great fire. The Passion Play of Oberammergau, had been shipped to him. This is the finest picture ever produced. It is made by Pathé of Paris, hand colored throughout, nearly 3,000 feet long and is a reproduction of the "Passion Play of Oberammergau." This great picture ran for over four years at the Eden Musee, New York City, and played to capacity wherever shown. Mr. Cahan is to make some extensive improvements at the Theatreum that will enlarge the seating capacity, the date of this picture is not yet arranged.
